

January 19, 2010

MDC CHIEF GUEST APPEARS ON WNPR-CT PUBLIC RADIO

MDC Chief Administrative Officer, Robert Moore joined Charles Duhigg of the New York Times, as a featured guest on the Where We Live show, hosted by John Dankowsky of WNPR-Connecticut Public Radio.

During the live taping on Thursday, January 14, guests discussed a variety of drinking water quality issues, watershed maintenance and protection, the Safe Drinking Water Act and the ever growing debate on bottled water.

(Photo by Chion Wolf)

WNPR serves the entire state of Connecticut--reaching an estimated 750,000 television viewers and more than 180,000 radio listeners each week.

Website visitors interested in listening to the taping of Where We Live can do so by clicking on the link below:

<http://www.cpb.org/node/17698>

For more information on WNPR-CT PUBLIC RADIO please visit the CT Public Broadcasting Network at www.cpb.org.

